2008 Championship Issue

The 15th Anniversary East Coast Championship Show was, as expected a huge success. Over the three circuits in 2008, the EC offered 461 classes and had 348 horses attending, entering 1893 classes!

All of the EC shows this year have suffered from the freakish weather we are experiencing in the UK, and the weekend of 5th - 7th September was really set to try both competitors, show organisers and venue with torrential rain most of the weekend. It just goes to show how popular the show is and how highly sought after the circuit awards are as everyone kept a smile on their face, and entries remained high in all classes. With some quick thinking by the show organisers indoor warm ups were put in place and although it was a damp weekend for everyone, and wellies and macs were the norm when not showing, the happy smiling faces made up for the lack of sun. There were some very natty hat covers on show during the rain, we're not sure which of the many trade stands on site were selling them, but they must have had a roaring trade. Superhorse sponsor Don Fechner from The Western Boots and Saddles Company was especially well covered with his all in one yellow rain suit!

With the busy schedule, we had decided to start the show on the Thursday evening with Trail, and introducing the new East Coast Circuit Trail Gate (pictured below) which in years to come will no doubt give some good photo opportunities for Nathan Haynes of NRH Photography who is our official show photographer you can view photos of the show at www.nrhphotography.co.uk. By starting on the Thursday evening, the show ran at a very relaxed pace, with Halter on Friday and Sunday mornings and the Saturday mostly taken up with Trail and then the Gala Afternoon/Evening.

Gala Championship Showcase

Saturday saw another innovative East Coast idea - a double judged Gala Showcase. After the Reining and Trail, there was a short break, and then all the show team disappeared, appearing a little while later all dressed in matching uniforms, with Ring Stewards Mick Carder and David Lloyd reappearing to cheers in Dinner Jackets - dashing helpers to our two Judges, Simone Degeus and Sylvia Katschker. The Gala started with an invitational Trail class limited to the top 10 high scorers over the weekend, a fiendishly difficult trail course, designed by David Lloyd involving twists turns and a huge amount of poles and needing some very accurate riding, got everyone concentrating hard. To be honest, it was probably easier on the horses than the riders who had to remember where to go!

One wit looking at the pattern wondered aloud whether David had designed the course after a few too many drinks and with revenge on his mind! Needless to say the top 10 Trail competitors weren't going to let David beat them, and put in some good rounds, with Chris Dalton and Hesa Classy Shadow winning the gold medal, with a score of 140.5, having had the highest qualifying score of 73, Lucy Adams and This Chicks Smokin took the Silver and Evelyn Dash and Arabis King Bee winning the Bronze. It was at this point that competitors realised these classes were going to be a little different, as the winners were called down in reverse order to the red carpet podium for their medals and sashes with a victory lap for the winners to Queen's "We Are The Champions".

Docs Summer Sky, a husband and wife one-two, with Lucy Adams This Chicks Smokin earning her second medal of the day, this one a bronze.

The Non Pro HuS saw Anna Kerslake and Cruise Along Arabis who were having a very good show winning the gold medal with a great performance. Penny Pendle on Shocka Zip Em, (who had looked incredibly green whilst waiting for her entrance music) was all smiles with her Silver, and Lindsay Doel's LJ Classic Luke took the bronze to add to his Grand Champion honours in Halter over the weekend.

In the collecting ring before the next classes, there were a few very queasy looking riders waiting for their classes to start as they realised they were really going to Show their horses. Of course, the horses loved it, you know what Quarter Horses are like, give them some limelight and they'll sparkle!

The NSBA HuS classes followed, sponsored by Oakridge Quarter Horses with competitors accompanied by some incredibly emotive music being introduced to spectators and Judges with name, age of horse and breeding by the "Voice" John Hall whilst trotting down the centre line before moving to the rail. The Open class saw Adrian Brazier with Whatta Fancy Blaze putting in a fine performance to clinch the Gold Medal from Terrie Heid-Brazier's

Next up was another new introduction to the UK by the East Coast Show Team, the Oakridge Quarter Horses and NRH Photography sponsored NSBA Yearling Longe Line. This involved the horse being shown on each rein in three gaits and Tanya Rowe with Sheila Fitzpatrick's Cruisin in Fashion winning the gold medal with Gerald Boyden - at his first ever show taking silver with EP Buddy Boy, and Jo Corringham with Leaguers Sequel taking the bronze.

The NSBA Two Year Old Longe Line saw Tanya Rowe again taking gold, this time with Sue Evans Smoke A Lani with Colleen Gates Hot Dark N Dynamic taking the silver medal. This is a great event for those of you with youngsters who want to show in a class other than halter.

Next up came the Oakridge sponsored NSBA Western Pleasure classes. There has been fierce competition over the summer in these classes, and this show saw Lee Rutter riding Lita Pocock's Miss P J Zippo repeating her 2007 success by winning the class and earning her gold medal. Lucy Adams - in danger of being weighed down by metalwork and having to change clothes multiple times with This Chicks Smokin picked up their third medal, this one a silver with Alan Payne riding his wife Sally's This Sheiks Blazing to the bronze medal.

In gold medal position in the NSBA Non Pro class was Annie Gravett riding Pure Dynamic Image, giving her trademark wave as she rode down to the winners podium. Anna Kerslake and Cruise Along Arabis adding a silver to her HuS gold, and Penny Pendle continuing to show Shocka Zip Em's versatility by winning a bronze.

As the reining started, so did the rain, again, with darkness falling and the Gala Reception starting upstairs in the gallery, a good crowd of spectators gathered in the cafe, the gallery and in the arena itself, where the atmosphere was almost as electric as the thunder and lightning pulsing through the dark sky. The reception sponsored by Mike and Val Adam's Risk and Safety Management Services Ltd was a great success with wonderful canapes created by Sheila Fitzpatrick and Champagne and Bucks Fizz. Jane and Geoff Wallace, two of the original quartet who set up the East Coast Shows 15 years ago, thanked all the competitors and sponsors for their continued support for the show and helping to make it one of the most successful shows in the country. Mike and Jane Roberts were then asked to present their Dun Bri Sportsmanship Award, won last year by show secretary Jane Muir. This award is voted for over the summer by the competitors. This year's winner was Lindsay Doel, who works at Horse Creek Farm. It may well have been the first time that Lindsay has been rendered speechless. Lindsay was last seen clutching a plastic cup of champagne and hugging her trophy with a big smile on her face.

Whilst the reception continued, the attendees were treated some some great NRHA reining with both Open and Non Pro Classes. Fierce competition in both division ensured a great spectacle. With the reiners being early birds on the Saturday with their first classes starting at 7.30 am, they also proved to be night owls by finishing off the Gala Show-case.

In the NRHA Non Pro Event, Freerein Magazine Editor and Circuit Award Sponsor Talitha Wade on Tejons Dunit won the Gold Medal in the Rhinestone Clothing sponsored event, with Sue Forrest riding the evergreen Zan Fransisco Rey sliding into silver medal position and Lita Pocock on Santa Cruz Whiz winning the Bronze. With the Open Riders flexing their riding muscles and geeing each other up, for the Western Boots and Saddles Company sponsored NRHA Open class, Lee Rutter went first on Lita Pocock's Custom Remedy and really set the standard with a score of 145.5 making the following riders really push themselves to catch him. In the end his first run proved to be unbeatable, his second run on Lita's Santa Cruz Whiz gave him a Gold /Silver one/two with Sarah Deptford riding her own Chex Out This Action in Bronze medal position, following up from their successful early morning session where they won four classes. With feedback from competitors, spectactors and sponsors alike very positive, we'd really like to think we would repeat this Gala Showcase in 2009. As with anything, we need sponsors to help run these events, so if you would be interested in becoming one of the growing band of extremely generous people who help make the shows such a success, please do contact us. You'd be surprised how reasonable the cost is for sponsorship of circuit awards and classes. Go on, all of you who have won awards in the past, help others win awards by sponsorship.

So Who Won It.....??????

2008 SUPERHORSE CHAMPION

SUPERHORSE KING BEE!

The 2008 Western Boots and Saddles Company East Coast Superhorse Award had another worthy winner this year. Evelyn Dash and her 13 year old gelding Arabis King Bee. "Busby" adds this title to an already impressive tally of AQHA Awards, including Performance Register of Merits, Halter Register of Merits, International High Point Awards, and one of a very small number of British bred AQHA Champions, an award he won in 2007.

Bred by the 2006 Superhorse rider Sheila Fitzpatrick, out of Arabis Baby B Final and by Rexys Midnite Runner-Evelyn who has owned Busby since he was a four year old says she bought him because she could see an underlying talent, however, she has also said that it did take a further five years before he stopped "exploding" in the show pen when people clapped or judges asked for lope.

"Busby" and Evelyn are well known faces on both the AQHA and WES show circuits, "Busby" is a particular favourite as his party trick is sticking his tongue out at people asking for sweets! He has to be one of the most consistent performers showing in all spheres in the UK. With the Superhorse standings being very close after the first circuit, it was after the second circuit that "Busby" and Evelyn's attempt to become the 2008 Superhorse winner started to gain momentum and they had a considerable lead, it was at the final show, keeping up the pressure they clinched the Award - on their way to the title they also won three circuit awards! Congratulations Evelyn and "Busby" a well deserved victory!
